

ORDINANCE NO. 2014-04

AN ORDINANCE FOR SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESSES, ESTABLISHING LICENSING REQUIREMENTS AND REGULATIONS FOR SEXUALLY ORIENTED
BUSINESSES WITHIN LAPORTE COUNTY, INDIANA

WHEREAS, sexually oriented businesses require special supervision from the public safety agencies of the County in order to protect and preserve the health, safety, and welfare of the patrons of such businesses as well as the citizens of the County; and,

WHEREAS, the LaPorte County Commissioners find that sexually oriented businesses, as a category of establishments, are frequently used for unlawful sexual activities, including prostitution and sexual liaisons of a casual nature; and,

WHEREAS, the sale, use, or consumption of alcoholic beverages in sexually oriented businesses where such service takes the form of employing or permitting persons to perform or exhibit their nude or semi-nude bodies to patrons may serve as an inducement to the patrons to purchase alcoholic beverages. The result of such exploitation is both direct and secondary criminal activity, moral degradation and disturbance of the peace and good order of the community. In addition, this commercial exploitation of such nude and semi-nude acts is adverse to the public's interest in the quality of life, commercial activity and total community environment of LaPorte County.

WHEREAS, there is convincing documented evidence that sexually oriented businesses, as a category of establishments, have deleterious secondary effects and are often associated with crime and adverse effects on surrounding properties; and,

WHEREAS, the County Commissioners desire to minimize and control these adverse effects and thereby protect the health, safety, and welfare of the citizenry; protect the citizens from crime; preserve the quality of life; preserve the character of surrounding neighborhoods and deter the spread of urban blight; and,

WHEREAS, certain sexually oriented products and services offered to the public are recognized as not inherently expressive and not protected by the First Amendment, see, e.g., Sewell v. Georgia, 233 S.E. 2d 187 (Ga. 1977), dismissed for want of a substantial federal question, 435 U.S. 982 (1978) (sexual devices); FW/PBS, Inc. v. City of Dallas, 493 U.S. 215, 224 (1990) (escort services and sexual encounter services); Williams v. Morgan, 478 F. 3d 1316 (11th Cir. 2007) (upholding ban on sexual novelty devices); and,

WHEREAS, there is documented evidence of sexually oriented businesses, including adult bookstores and adult video stores, manipulating their inventory and/or business practices to avoid regulation while retaining their essentially "adult" nature, see, e.g., City of New York v. Hommes, 724 N.E. 2d 368 (N.Y. 1999); For the People Theatres of N.Y., Inc. v. City of New York, 793 N.Y.S. 2d 356 (N.Y. App. Div. 2005); Taylor v. State, No. 01-01-00505-CR, 2002 WL 1722154 (Tex. App. July 25, 2002) (noting that "the non-adult video selections appeared old and several of its display cases were covered with cobwebs"); Z.J. Gifts D-4, L.L.C. v. City of Littleton, Civil Action No. 99-N-1696, Memorandum Decision and Order (D. Colo. March 31, 2001) (finding "plaintiff's argument that it is not an adult entertainment establishment frivolous at best"); People ex. Rel. Deters v. The Lion's Den, Inc., Case No. 04-CH-26, Modified Permanent Injunction Order (Ill. Fourth Judicial Circuit, Effingham County, July 13, 2005) (noting that "the accuracy and credibility" of the evidence on inventory in a Lion's Den was suspect, and that testimony was "less than candid" and "suggested an intention to obscure the actual amount of sexually explicit material sold"); and,

WHEREAS, the County intends to regulate such businesses as sexually oriented businesses through a narrowly tailored ordinance designed to serve the substantial government interest in preventing the negative secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses; and,

WHEREAS, a prohibition on alcoholic beverages in sexual oriented businesses is not intended to suppress expression, but to combat the negative direct and secondary effects of the presence of alcohol in these establishments which serves a substantial government interest in that this restriction is the least restrictive means to protect such governmental interest.

WHEREAS, the County's regulations shall be narrowly construed to accomplish this end; and,

WHEREAS, the County recognizes its constitutional duty to interpret, construe, and amend its laws to comply with constitutional requirements as they are announced; and,

WHEREAS, with the passage of any ordinance, the LaPorte County Commissioners accept as binding the applicability of general principles of criminal and civil law and procedure and the rights and obligations under the United States and Indiana Constitutions, Indiana Code, and the Indiana Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure; and,

WHEREAS, it is not the intent of this Ordinance to suppress any speech activities protected by the U.S. Constitution or the Indiana Constitution, but to enact legislation to further the content-neutral governmental interests of the County, to-wit, the controlling of secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Commissioners of the County of LaPorte, State of Indiana:

§ 100.01 Purpose; Findings and Rationale.

- (a) Purpose. It is the purpose of this Ordinance to regulate sexually oriented businesses in order to promote the health, safety, and general welfare of the citizens of the County, and to establish reasonable and uniform regulations to prevent the deleterious secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses within the County. The provisions of this Ordinance have neither the purpose nor effect of imposing a limitation or restriction on the content or reasonable access to any communicative materials, including sexually oriented materials. Similarly, it is neither the intent nor effect of this Ordinance to restrict or deny access by adults to sexually oriented materials protected by the First Amendment, or to deny access by the distributors and exhibitors of sexually oriented entertainment to their intended market. Neither is it the intent nor effect of this Ordinance to condone or legitimize the distribution of obscene material.

- (b) Findings and Rationale. Based on evidence of the adverse secondary effects of adult uses presented in hearings and in reports made available to the Board of County Commissioners, and on findings, interpretations, and narrowing constructions incorporated in numerous cases, including, but not limited to, *City of Littleton v. And based upon reports concerning secondary effects occurring in and around sexually oriented businesses in and around LaPorte County: A Study of Sexually Oriented Businesses, Final Report; LaPorte County, Indiana; by Duncan Associates dated August, 2012.

The LaPorte County Commissioners now finds:

- (1) Sexually oriented businesses, as a category of commercial uses, are associated with a wide variety of adverse secondary effects including, but not limited to, personal and property crimes, prostitution, potential spread of disease, lewdness, public indecency, obscenity, illicit drug use and drug trafficking, negative impacts on surrounding properties, urban blight, litter, and sexual assault and exploitation.
- (2) Alcoholic consumption in sexual oriented businesses increases the likelihood of crime, illegal drug use, and illegal sexual activity, that increases and aggravates the negative direct and secondary effects of sexual oriented businesses and encourages undesirable behavior that it not in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare.

- (3) Each of the foregoing negative secondary effects constitutes a harm which the County has a substantial government interest in preventing and/or abating. This substantial government interest in preventing secondary effects, which is the County's rationale for this Ordinance, exists independent of any comparative analysis between sexually oriented and non-sexually oriented businesses. Additionally, the County's interest in regulating sexually oriented businesses extends to preventing future secondary effects of either current or future sexually oriented businesses that may locate in the County. The County finds that the cases and documentation relied on in this Chapter are reasonably believed to be relevant to said secondary effects.

The County hereby adopts and incorporates herein its stated findings and legislative record related to the adverse secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses, including the judicial opinions and reports related to such secondary effects.

If the decision is to deny, suspend, or revoke the license, the decision shall advise the respondent of the right to appeal such decision to a court of competent jurisdiction, and the decision shall not become effective until the thirtieth (30th) day after it is rendered. If the Hearing Officer's decision finds that no grounds exist for denial, suspension, or revocation of the license, the Hearing Officer shall, contemporaneously with the issuance of the decision, order the County Administrator or his/her assigns to immediately withdraw the intent to deny, suspend, or revoke the license and to notify the respondent in writing by certified mail of such action. If the respondent is not yet licensed, the County Administrator or his/her assigns shall contemporaneously therewith issue the license to the applicant.
